

AIM/Identified Students Data

Since SY 08/09, the number of students in the AIM process overall and in middle school and high school has decreased. The number of elementary students in the AIM process has remained steady.

Since SY 08/09, the overall number of students with identified needs has increased, with an increase in elementary, a decrease in middle school, and no change in high school

